

Postgraduate Diploma in Specialist Nursing

Haematology Strand

St James Hospital, Adelaide and Meath Hospital
University of Dublin Trinity College

Programme Length (180 hours class contact)

Postgraduate Diploma in Specialist Nursing

Core Modules (2)

Research Dissemination

Healthcare Management

Specialists Modules(4)

- Management of Haematological Condition 1
- Management of Haematological Condition 2
- Care of Patient with Coagulation disorder
- Living with a Haematological Condition

Postgraduate Diploma in Specialist Nursing

Practice hours (500) which is minimum 250
supervised and 250 unsupervised

Breakdown of Placement for the PGDSN- Haematology

- St James Hospital
- 3 weeks Burkitts Unit (Transplant Unit) (112.5 hrs)
- 5 days in Haematology Day Ward(37.5 hrs)
- 6 Days with Clinical Nurse Specialist team (8 hrs x 6=48 hrs)
- 2 days NCHCD National Centre for Hereditary Coagulation Disorder (10 hrs x2 =20 hrs)
- 2 Days OLCCH (8 hrs x 2= 16 hrs)
- 1 education day Irish Blood Transfusion Service (8 hrs)
- 1 education day Central Pathology Laboratory (8 Hours)
- Total 250 Supervised Hours

Next Year

Questions??